

Pre-Symposium Seminar with
Dr. Helen Timperley & Amelia Peterson

Thursday, May 11, 2017
10am – 2:45pm

Westin Wall Centre, Vancouver Airport
3099 Corvette Way, Richmond BC

This seminar is designed for educators:

- determined to strengthen professional learning in schools and districts
- curious about what other jurisdictions are doing to help all learners thrive
- interested in how professional inquiry is helping to change the life experiences of learners

Dr. Helen Timperley, University of Auckland, New Zealand, is widely recognized for her work in professional learning. She has published widely, including her most recent book Realizing the Power of Professional Learning (2014).

Amelia Peterson is completing doctoral studies through Harvard University's PhD in Education. She is currently studying the development processes of innovative education policy agendas, and working on Thrive: Why 21st Century Skills Are Not Enough (with Valerie Hannon, forthcoming June 2017).

Registration fee: $150 including GST

Registration is limited – please register early!

Payment by credit card. Register online:

westvancouver.schools.ca/noii

Questions? Please contact:

Network Coordinator, Donna Weaving: dweaving@dccnet.com

To register for the NOII Symposium on May 12 & 13 or for information about accommodations: www.noii.ca/symposium

